

" My experience to date with the F1 Akaushi cross on both Red Angus and Beefmaster dams has shown the cattle to consistently produce high average daily gains, above 3.6 pounds per day, and produce very high quality carcasses. These results were produced efficiently with feed conversions well under 5.85 pounds of feed per pound of gain and finish weights approaching 1400 pounds."

Keith Hansen
Consulting Nutritionist